

Youth For Understanding USA is looking for Host Families in your community. Families all over the US have found this to be a wonderful way to discover the world and help young people expand their horizons. Hosting can be one of the most rewarding, fun and enriching experiences your family can have.

Yi 15 year Male from China #2010-128-003-0119

Yi is a very active young man who loves swimming, cycling and the traditional Chinese Arts (painting and calligraphy). He is very talented in those ancient arts that he even had an exhibition of his art work in his school. Also he likes to play traditional Chinese Bamboo flute and he can't wait to show his American host family and friends his artistic talents. He really hopes to make a career with his talent, or with his other passion: American fashion.

As Yi makes friends easily, he has many friends, both his age and older. He loves to listen to stories from his adult friends and learn about how things were in the past. His teachers say he is invaluable around the classroom as a teachers helper and he is greatly

Zhiliang 16 year Male from China #2010-128-003-0015

"Ian" attends a boarding school where he belongs to a Youth Volunteer Club that helps other students and is a broadcaster at the school radio station. His teacher describes him as respectful, a good team player who gets along well with his peers and has many friends, and a student who is academically self-motivated. When Ian is with his family, they enjoy mountain climbing, picnics and playing badminton. He household chores include washing dishes and keeping his room clean. Ian plays a traditional Chinese instrument, the "Erhu", and can prepare some Chinese dishes. He is looking forward to meeting his new American family and sharing a year of experiences.
